

Inspiration

The name of this room by RICH BROCK OF BEDBROCK DEVELOPERS and CLAIRE OWNBY OF PARADISE VALLEY INTERIORS says it all. A vinyl quote on the wall that greets residents illustrates a message designed to inspire (“Having somewhere to go is home. Having someone to love is family. Having both is a blessing”). In addition, a magnetic wallcovering was used to create a communication board, so the girls could post daily messages to each other. The freestanding tub in the bathroom, which is decked in sleek white subway tile, is meant to give the girls a relaxing, spa-like spot to themselves. “I wanted our room to be peaceful and calming. It is important that they feel safe and comfortable in our room,” Brock says. Natural wood Bella Beams in the neutral-tone living and bedroom quarters are standout design elements and add a more rustic note to the space, balancing out the more modern moments like the bathroom’s subway tile. Though all these well-thought-out elements came together so seamlessly thanks to the talents of the pros who created it, it is the heart of the space—rather than the visual—that makes the most impact. “I am so proud of our friends, partners and employees for dedicating their time and money to make our room a piece of art and for building an incredible home for these girls,” Brock says. bedbrock.com; paradisevalleyinteriors.com. —M.L.
